Law Tuition Approach

To tutor the LNAT I help students develop and apply a systematic approach to both the multiple-choice questions and the essay. I use practice past paper questions and sample essay questions in the teaching. I provide overviews of legal areas for my general law tutoring and also set various essay topics/questions to discuss in classes. I help students prepare for interviews by conducting mock interviews and jointly constructing model answers to commonly asked questions. I can provide proof reading for coursework and personal statements remotely (without the need for online classes) by suggesting amendments and adding comments to the text.
